Adult Services Lead Librarian

We’re looking for the kind of leader that can make everyone around them better. Can you relate? Then we’d like to work with you! As a lead librarian, you’ll be part of a hard-working, fun-loving group that jokes about our unofficial motto: “Teamwork makes the dream work!” It’s in this team environment that you’ll play a vital role in directing workflow and developing staff. Your flexibility, creativity and ability to lead change are critical to this position.

Our award-winning library has been an important part of the community since its founding in 1803, and we’re proud to combine traditional library services with the innovative. What do we offer? Lots of food and fun, plus a supportive culture that includes leadership and development opportunities. Join us as we work together to be the library our patrons deserve!

To learn more about our job opportunities, visit worthingtonlibraries.org/about/jobs